

Important Notice: Do Not Send Emails to Personal Addresses
Date: August 19, 2025

Esteemed EPIB Customers,

Despite prior instructions to channel all communications, documents, and information related to the Euro Pacific International Bank liquidation, your message was sent to an incorrect address.

Please be reminded:

- All documents must be submitted via secure email to: professionalservices@axosfs.com
This ensures the confidentiality and integrity of your personal information.
- All case-related inquiries should be directed to: trustee@epbprliquidation.com

Transmitting sensitive information through unsecured email services compromises your data security and exposes you to risks such as identity theft and electronic fraud.

Your message has now been forwarded to the correct electronic mail address.

Effective immediately, any future messages sent to other than the indicated will be deleted without review, action, or further notice.

We appreciate your cooperation in following the established communication protocols.

Wigberto Lugo Mender, Esq., CPA
Trustee in the Liquidation of Euro Pacific International Bank, Inc.
